

Maryvonne Chartier-Raymond

Paradiesstrasse 64
CH-4102 Binningen/Basel
Switzerland

Phone: +41 61 421 90 89
Mobile: +41 79 305 92 55
chray@chartieraymond.eu
www.chartieraymond.eu

Main skills

- Egyptology, archaeology and sciences of antiquity
- Marketing, communication and project management

Personal information

- French citizen
- Swiss resident since 1986
- Married
- One adult son

Languages

- English: written and spoken fluently
- German: written and spoken fluently
- French: native language
- Arabic: practical knowledge

Management experience

Since September 2012: President of the International Association for the Study of Law in Ancient Egypt (AIDEA). Vice President 2007-2012. Responsible for AIDEA congress in Basel in September 2012 on the organisation of transport in ancient Egypt

April 2008 – Mai 2015: President of the Basler Forum für Ägyptologie (BFÄ). Responsible for the French-language course program since 2001.

Since August 2005: Vice president of the Alliance Française of Basel (AFB); member of management committee since 1999.

Main responsibilities within the associations AIDEA, BFÄ and AFB:

- Acquisition of sponsors and financial support.
- Acquisition and accompaniment of prominent experts for lectures.

- Conceptual and detailed planning and conduct of courses, lectures, tours and excursions, taking into account quality and financial requirements.
- Management of teams.
- Collaboration with the media.

Since December 2003: Owner and general manager of Railweb GmbH, a consulting firm founded with husband George Raymond for marketing, communication and project management in the railway sector.

Experience in archaeology and communication

Since 1992: Independent activity involving teaching, lectures, tours and publications on archaeology, ancient Egyptian civilisation and the ancient world:

- Since 2014 : Creation of a catalogue for a private Egyptological collection.
- Since 2001: Courses on ancient Egyptian civilisation within the Basler Forum für Ägyptologie in Basel. See www.baslerforumaegyptologie.ch.
- Since 1992: Lectures on archaeology and ancient Egypt and tours of Egyptological collections and exhibitions, mainly at the Basel Museum of Ancient Art, at the Skulpturhalle and at the Museum of Culture in Basel and in France, Germany, Italy and Switzerland.

1987-1999: Archaeology in Egypt. Digs, prospection projects and research missions in the Nile Valley and in North and South Sinai with the Universities of Leuven, Lille III and Strasbourg. Main responsibilities:

- Preparations, putting a team in place and obtaining authorisations.
- Field work, site and object documentation, including horizontal and vertical plans, photos, logbook of digs, protection and minor restoration of objects, cataloguing and publication.
- Managing relationships with local worker teams, local authorities and Egypt's Supreme Council of Antiquities.
- Providing for the material needs of the European archaeological team.

Since 1987: Radio and newspaper interviews in Switzerland and Alsace.

1983-1985: Archaeology in France. Medieval and pre-historic digs in Douai and Vitry-en-Artois (Nord-Pas de Calais region) and in Luzan and Agen (Midi-Pyrénées region).

1980-1982: French instruction for adults at the language school Academia, Boston, USA.

1978: Legal writer, Caisse régionale d'assurance maladie de l'Île-de-France (regional headquarters for public health insurance), Paris.

Higher education

1985: Diplôme d'études approfondies (pre-doctoral degree), University of Lille III. History and civilisations of Antiquity. Thesis: "Les sites miniers et leurs communautés ouvrières de l'Égypte ancienne" (mining sites and their workmen's communities in Ancient Egypt).

1984: Maîtrise (master's degree) in history, University of Paris IV - Sorbonne. Thesis: "Les rapports familiaux et sociaux entre père et fils d'après les textes et les représentations de l'Égypte ancienne" (family and social relationships between fathers and sons according to texts and images in ancient Egypt).

1977: Maîtrise (master's degree) in private law, University of Paris II – Assas.

1974: Attestation (diploma) in criminology, University of Poitiers.

In my free time

- Binningen/Basel Regional Choir (since 2002); autumn and spring concerts with an orchestra in various venues
- Reading (ancient Egypt, Mediterranean antiquity, contemporary sociology and politics)
- Sketches and caricatures
- Gardening and exotic plants

Further information

An appendix to this CV presents more information on my archaeological digs, lectures, publications and other interests.

Binningen/Basel, 31 December 2015